

AUN-TEPL Thematic Network Resource Sharing Guide (MERLOT)

Thank you for accessing this ASEAN University Network-Technology Enhanced Personalised Learning (AUN-TEPL) Thematic Network Resource Sharing Guide.

In this guide we hope to share with you, our network's efforts in promoting a community which shares, curates and exchanges educational resources with the aim of improving student success through the propagation of TEPL approaches across universities.

Key Benefits

- Access curated shared resources
- Search for discipline-specific educational resources targeted at technology-enhanced personalised learning
- Contribute to a sharing community to build knowledge and skills
- Receive feedback and reviews to improve your resources within the AUN-TEPL community and beyond
- Enhance academic reputation by being a Peer Reviewer or one of the Editorial boards

The following diagram shows a visual representation of the different roles that you as an AUN-TEPL member or affiliate could contribute to this community, as an adopter, a contributor and/or a reviewer. Supported by the university libraries and MERLOT Editorial Board, the AUN-TEPL thematic network forms an ecosystem of resource-sharing community within MERLOT.
